

Mechanic

Job characteristics

Short description

Maintenance mechanics install, repair, and maintain machinery and equipment. Their responsibilities also include building and maintaining mechanical systems, and involve the use of a variety of hand and power tools

Is found in

Companies or departments specialized, industrial harbour mechanical work.

Position within the company

Receives orders from supervisor and/or foreman. Works under the direct supervision of the foreman. Reports to the foreman.

Areas

Independent industry, harbour area.

Personal safety

Good cooperation with colleagues

Tasks

Responsibilities and tasks

We are looking for a skilled maintenance mechanic to install, repair, and maintain machinery and equipment. The maintenance mechanic's responsibilities include performing regular inspections of machinery and equipment, carrying out preventative maintenance, and fulfilling other duties such as building maintenance as assigned.

To be a successful maintenance mechanic you should have a practical mind, mechanical aptitude, and strong attention to detail. Ultimately, a top-notch maintenance mechanic should be able to ensure that machinery and equipment are in excellent operating condition.

- Assembling, installing, and maintaining mechanical systems, machinery, and equipment.
- Troubleshooting machinery and performing routine preventative maintenance.
- Reading, interpreting, and following instructions and operation manuals.
- Maintaining a schedule for inspecting, servicing, and testing machinery.
- Cleaning, repairing and installing equipment and parts as needed.
- Operating a variety of hand and power tools.
- Maintaining a clean and organized work area.
- Complying with health and safety regulations.
- Performing general maintenance work on buildings as assigned.

Mental and physical strain

Works in normal production area. Is somewhat bothered by noise

Must either frequently lift or work in a different position (kneeling, stooping, lying, etc.)

Must wear protective equipment. Risk of injury

Knowledge and skills

Mechanic Requirements:

- High school diploma/GED.
- 5+ years of experience as a maintenance mechanic or in a similar role.
- Trade or vocational school graduation preferred.
- Knowledge and ability to operate hand and power tools.
- Mechanical aptitude and ability.
- Strong computer skills.
- Physical dexterity.
- Good troubleshooting skills.
- Knowledge of health and safety regulations.
- Diploma for VCA

Quality, occupational health and safety and environment (KAM)

- Reporting malfunctions and deviations
- Applying KAM regulations (quality, occupational health and safety, environmental regulations)

Organization of own work

- Checking and measuring own work
- Choosing the right tools
- Reading and interpreting work instructions and assignments
- Tidying up and cleaning the workplace

Consultation and coordination

- Participate in work consultations and/or toolbox meetings
- Inform about progress
- Informing and collaborating with colleagues
- Determining installation methods and choice of materials

Organize and execute

- Follow instructions and procedures
- Care

Collaborate and interact with others

- Show attention and understanding
- Act ethically and with integrity
- To collaborate